

Mashreq Bank, one of the largest privately owned banks in the UAE has a full time opening in their New York office. They are looking for MS graduates, preferably in information technology, statistics or finance discipline for a full time Regulatory Role on their Compliance team.

They need candidates with the following skills:

- 2 to 3 years Data Analyst background, working knowledge of Databases like Oracle/SqlServer/DB2
- Ability to analyze and understand database design and write/modify SQL Queries
- 1-2 years of Project Management experience is preferred
- Good understanding of local regulatory rules and regulations.
- Good command over spoken and written English
- Good presentation skills
- Efficient and logical approach to problem solving.

You must have Authorization to work in the United States indefinitely without restriction or sponsorship to be considered.**

Interested candidates can contact Ms. Rim Ben Amara at rimam@mashreq.com